SARAJEVO IN BRIEF

UKRATKO O SARAJEVU

Sarajevo is the capital and largest city of BiH and serves as the country's administrative, commercial, cultural, university and sports center.

The City of Sarajevo has four municipalities: Stari Grad, Centar, Novo Sarajevo and Novi Grad.

The area occupied by Sarajevo has been inhabited since prehistory and it was founded by the Ottomans in the 15th century. Sarajevo became the capital of an independent BiH in 1992.

Bosniaks, Croats, Serbs, Jews, Roma... all live here and the major religions are Islam, Catholicism, Christian Orthodoxy and Judaism. Given the diverse cultural influences exerted upon the city throughout history, it enjoys a reputation as a place where East and West meet and where various cultures converge.

Sarajevo je glavni i najveći grad Bosne i Hercegovine, te administrativni, privredni, kulturni, univerzitetski i sportski centar BiH.

Grad Sarajevo sastavljen je od četiri općine: Stari Grad, Centar, Novo Sarajevo i Novi Grad.

Prostor Sarajeva naseljen je od prahistorije, a grad su osnovale Osmanlije u 15. stoljeću. Glavni grad nezavisne BiH Sarajevo je postalo 1992.

TURBULENT 20TH CENTURY

During the 20th century Sarajevo has been a part of 6 countries and it was the stage for the Sarajevo Assassination and events of WWI and WWII, the XIV Winter Olympic Games and the longest-running siege in modern history.

TURBULENTNO 20. STOLJEĆE

Tokom 20. stoljeća Sarajevo se nalazilo u sklopu 6 država i bilo je pozornica Sarajevskog atentata, događaja u Prvom i Drugom svjetskom ratu, XIV Zimskih olimpijskih igara i najduže opsade jednog grada u modernoj historiji.

PARKING

Preporučujemo korištenje čuvanih parkinga ili podzemnih garaža, poput onih u Importanne centru, Sarajevo City Centru, Alti, Aria Mallu, Hotelu Europe, preko puta Vijećnice... Rizično je parkirati u neosvijetljenim ulicama, a vrijedne stvari ne biste trebali ostavljati u automobilu. Parkiranje na zabranjenim mjestima sankcioniše se kaznama. Cijena parkinga obično je 2–5 BAM po satu.

20 YEARS OF SARAJEVO NAVIGATOR

20 GODINA SARAJEVO NAVIGATORA

Exactly two decades ago, in July 2006, an idea was born that would forever change the way we experience Sarajevo. Launched as part of the USAID CCA Project, Sarajevo Navigator quickly outgrew the bounds of international support. We became a rare example of a project that survived, evolved, and transformed into a self-sustaining, commercially successful, and independent private entity.

From day one, our philosophy was clear: Destination Sarajevo knows no administrative boundaries! Driven by pure passion, we lived and breathed Sarajevo as a single, unified destination. We didn't just document stories- we created them. Through projects like the Sarajevo Holiday Market, the Sarajevo Ramadan Festival, magical nights at the Yellow Fortress, the revitalization of Wilson's Promenade, and Damir Imamović's unforgettable sevdah at Svrzo's House, we directly wove new threads into the cultural and tourism fabric of our city.

We step into our jubilee year of 2026 with a clearer vision than ever. As Sarajevo sees record visitor numbers, Sarajevo Navigator remains the primary communication bridge connecting the city's ever-expanding offerings with the growing number of visitors to Destination Sarajevo. As a key driver of development, we continue to push boundaries, positioning Sarajevo right where it has always belonged—at the very top of the global tourism map.

Thank you for navigating our Sarajevo with us for the past 20 years!

Prije tačno dvije decenije, u julu 2006. godine, rođena je ideja koja će zauvijek promijeniti način na koji doživljavamo Sarajevo. Pokrenut u sklopu USAID CCA projekta, Sarajevo Navigator je ubrzo prerastao okvire međunarodne podrške. Postali smo rijedak primjer projekta koji je preživio, evoluirao i transformisao se u samoodrživ, tržišno uspješan i nezavisan privatni entitet.

Od prvog dana, naša filozofija je bila jasna: destinacija Sarajevo ne poznaje administrativne podjele! Vođeni čistom strašću, disali smo sa Sarajevom kao jednom, cjelovitom destinacijom. Nismo samo bilježili priče – mi smo ih stvarali. Kroz projekte poput Sarajevo Holiday Marketa, Sarajevo Ramazan Festivala, magičnih noći na Žutoj tabiji, oživljavanja Vilsonovog šetališta, nezaboravnog sevdaha Damira Imamovića u Svrzinoj kući..., direktno smo tkali nove slojeve u turističku i kulturnu ponudu našeg grada.

U jubilarnu 2026. godinu ulazimo s jasnijom vizijom nego ikada. Dok Sarajevo bilježi rekordne posjete, Sarajevo Navigator ostaje primarni komunikacijski most između sve bogatije ponude i sve većeg broja posjetitelja destinacije Sarajevo. Kao ključni akter razvoja, nastavljamo pomjerati granice, pozicionirajući Sarajevo tamo gdje mu je oduvijek i mjesto – na sam vrh globalne turističke mape.

Hvala vam što već 20 godina navigirate s nama kroz naše Sarajevo!

SARAJEVO, NARRATIVE REPUBLIC

SARAJEVO, NARATIVNA REPUBLIKA

Every time I board a plane in Vienna or Frankfurt on my way to Sarajevo, something in me is stirred with joy. All of my senses readjust to a different reality. Suddenly, I find myself (again) in a context where everything is easy for me to interpret and I don't have to explain to anyone who and what I am. I recognize faces and smells, jewelry and clothing. I eavesdrop on conversations in the hope I might hear a pleasant gossip, expecting I might recognize someone and that they might greet me. Of course, there are also tourists and foreign citizens on that plane who live and work in Sarajevo and who have become part of it. We're all going in the same direction with a certain amount of love for the city. I imagine we're all somewhat excited. However you take it, we're in the same situation of entering the unusual magic of the Šeher.

As the plane glides over the hills and vales and the peripheral houses on the only airway into the Sarajevo valley, I'm already planning my first day there: who I'll call first, where we'll coffee; where goodies I'll have for lunch; where I might be going out that night. None of that is a matter of nostalgia. I'm looking forward to the city as it is: beautiful and fucked-up, damaged and complicated, full of people I know and of those I have yet to meet, loaded with possibilities and mistakes, love and edginess. When the plane touches down, my Sarajevo emotional switch is turned on.

In a taxi, even before we reach Dobrinja—that is to say, in the first minute—I ask the driver: "How is it going?" It's a general question;

Svaki put kad u Beču ili Frankfurtu sjednem na avion za Sarajevo, nešto se u meni usplahiri od radosti i sva mi se čula prešteluju na drugačiju stvarnost. Odjednom se (ponovo) nađem u kontekstu u kojem mi je sve lako protumačiti i u kojem nikome ne moram objašnjavati ko sam i šta sam. Prepoznajem lica i mirise, nakit i tip odjeće, prisluškujem razgovore u nadi da ću čuti neki ugodan trač, očekujem da ću nekoga prepoznati i da će me neko pozdraviti. U avionu su, naravno, i turisti i strani državljani koji u Sarajevu žive i rade i koji su dio Sarajeva. Svi idemo u istom pravcu sa izvjesnom količinom ljubavi prema gradu i ja zamišljam da smo svi donekle usplahireni. Kako god okreneš, u istoj smo situaciji ulaska u naopaku magiju Šehera.

Dok se avion spušta ponad brda i dolina i kuća na periferiji, jedinim i spektakularnim zračnim ulazom u sarajevsku dolinu, već planiram svoj prvi dan: kome ću se prvo javiti, gdje će se ručati, s kim ću kafu piti, gdje ću navečer izaći. Ništa od toga nije stvar nostalgije. Radujem se svom gradu takvom kakav jeste: lijep i zajeban, povrijeđen i komplikovan, pun svijeta kojeg znam i onog kojeg tek treba da upoznam, prepun mogućnosti i grešaka, ljubavi i pasjaluka. Kad avionski točkovi dotaknu tlo, u meni se uključi sarajevski emotivni prekidač.

U taksiju, prije nego što dobacimo do Dobrinje—dakle, u prvoj minuti-- postavim taksisti pitanje: „Kako ide?". Pitanje any kind of report is fine by me. Sometimes, that is the only question I get to ask before the taxi driver plunges into his monologue. In those fifteen or twenty minutes to my place, the taxi drivers who don't mind narrating tell me how the business might be going. Sometimes they tell me about the weather, and they get into personal and wondrous stories that could easily end up in one of my novels. My ride to the Socijalno neighborhood, where I grew up and my family still has the same apartment is pretty much my narrative entrance to the city.

Sarajevo is the city of characters and surprises. It's hard—though not impossible— to explain to someone who is not a Sarajevan to what extent is that city a narrative space, how many stories can be found and, indeed, unfold in such a small space. I've lived in Chicago, Paris, Berlin, and I've been all over the world: Shangai, Rio de Janeiro, Cairo, Dallas, Oslo, Chisinau, you name it. Nowhere is the narrative material as available and high-quality as in Sarajevo.

Of course, I'm totally biased. My relationship with storytelling and language was formed and formulated in Sarajevo. I'm not sure I'd have been a writer if I wasn't born there. Nevertheless, I've never heard from anyone anywhere the kind of stories as I'm likely to hear on that first taxi ride, let alone while drinking coffee with urban veterans who are all versed in generating stories and spreading creative gossip.

je uopšteno, odgovara mi svaka vrsta izvještaja. Nekad je to jedino pitanje koje postavim prije nego što taksista zasrlja u monolog. U tih petnaest- dvadeset minuta koliko nam treba do mog stana, taksisti kojima naracija nikad nije mrska mi kažu kako im ide posao, pričaju mi o vremenu, a uđu i u neke lične i čudesne priče koje bi lako mogle završiti u nekom od mojih romana. Moja vožnja do Socijalnog, gdje sam odrastao u stanu koji je još uvijek naš, zapravo je narativni ulazak u grad.

Sarajevo je grad likova i iznenađenja. Teško je—ali ne i nemoguće—objasniti nekome ko nije iz Sarajeva u kojoj mjeri je taj grad pripovijedni prostor, koliko priča se može naći i koliko ih se istovremeno odvija na tako maloj površini. Živio sam u Chicagu, Parizu, Berlinu, a motao sam se i diljem svijeta: Shanghai, Jaipur, Rio de Janeiro, Cairo, Dallas, Oslo itd, ali nigdje narativni materijal nije toliko dostupan i kvalitetan kao u Sarajevu.

Ja sam, naravno, krajnje pristrasan. Moj odnos prema pripovijedanju i jeziku jeste formiran i formulisan u Sarajevu. Ne znam da li bih uopšte bio pisac da se tu nisam rodio. Pa ipak, nikad nigdje ni od koga nisam čuo takve priče kao što ih mogu čuti tokom te prve vožnje taksijem, a kamoli na kafi sa urbanim veteranima koji su verzirani u širenju priča i kreativnih glasina.

Nastavak na sljedećoj stranici

That's why listening to the stories is part of my being in Sarajevo, which demands from me a certain kind of narrative modesty, an openness to anyone in that space who could tell me something. I pretend to be a visitor, someone who is yet to understand what Sarajevo can offer. That approach is partly a consequence of more than thirty years in diaspora, and partly a habit of a traveler who has opened himself up as much as he could to many cities of the world. I'd rather sit in a coffee shop, talk to people, watch them pass let the experience assemble itself into a story, than stand in lines outside touristically significant objects, where stories are already given and familiar.

But I don't only seek new stories in Sarajevo. What is also activated are memories of times and experiences already stored away as stories. I'm at an age when I try not to bore the youth with narrating things that happened in the past. Still, it's impossible for me to walk the streets and not see my past, already told or untold and story-worthy. And it's hard not to feel an urge and a need to share some of that past with others, since every city is, anyway you take it, a treasury of its citizens' shared past.

Which is why I'm happy to see tourists in Sarajevo, and even happier when my foreign friends come to see Sarajevo, even if I'm not there. Not so long ago, I got a text from Heather, my friend and former Princeton neighbor, who was visiting with her German husband. They were there for a day on their way to the coast, so she asked me what I thought she must see. I sent her up to Žuta tabija (The Yellow Fortress), to watch the sunset over the city.

Had I been there, I'd tell Heather and her husband a lot of stories: why Jekovac is called Jekovac (translatable as Echo Cliff); why there were so many tombstones, at the foot of the hill; how I waited in line outside a Kovači bakery for the iftar somun coming out of the oven at the exact time of the official sunset; what the fortress above Žuta tabija was; what Das ist Walter means in Sarajevo; how the Germans dug in in 1944 to defend the city from the partisans and how the only copy of the defense plan vanished from the safe in the headquarters at Bistrik, which is why the Germans withdrew without fighting; how at Ramadan you can see all the minaret lights in the city turn on at the same time at sunset, as if the city were waking up late.

One of the greatest pleasures in life for me is to show and tell Sarajevo for someone I love, or at least someone curious. That is, of course, a kind of welcome, but it's also a way for me to experience my city again. True love is never spent.

Tako je dio svakog mog boravka u Sarajevu slušanje priča, što od mene, profesionalnog pripovjedača, zahtjeva izvjesnu vrstu narativne skromnosti, otvorenosti prema svima u tom prostoru koji mi nešto mogu ispričati. Ponašam se kao posjetitelj, kao neko ko tek treba da razumije ono što mu Sarajevo nudi. To je dijelom posljedica više od trideset godina života u dijaspori, a dijelom je i navika putnika koji se tako otvarao koliko je mogao i u mnogim svjetskim gradovima. Više volim da sjedim u kafani, pričam sa ljudima, gledam kako svijet prolazi ulicom u nadi da će se to iskustvo nekako sklopiti u priču nego da stojim u redovima za obilazak turistički značajnih objekata, gdje su priče već poznate i zadate.

Ali u Sarajevu ne tražim samo nove priče. Aktivira se i sjećanje na vremena i iskustva koja su negdje već pohranjena kao priče. U godinama sam kad se trudim da ne gnjavim omladinu pripovijedanjem vezanim za davno prošla vremena. Pa ipak, nemoguće mi je hodati Sarajevom i ne vidjeti prošlost na ulicama, na licima ljudi, na mjestima koja mogu da izgledaju kranje nezanimljiva ako ne znaš šta se tu jednom desilo, tebi ili nekom drugom. I teško je ne osjećati poriv i potrebu da se nešto od te prošlosti ne podijeli sa drugima, pošto je svaki grad, kako god okreneš, trezor zajedničke prošlosti svih njegovih građana.

Zbog svega toga mi je drago da vidim turiste na ulicama grada, a još mi je draže kad moji strani prijatelji dođu u Sarajevo, čak i kad ja nisam tamo. Nedavno mi se iz Sarajeva iznebuha javila Heather, moja prijateljica i bivša komšinica iz Princetona (gdje sad obitavam), koja je tamo bila sa svojim mužem. Bili su tamo samo jedan dan, na putu na more, pa me je pitala šta da vidi. Poslao sam je na Žutu tabiju da gleda zalazak sunca ponad grada.

Da sam bio tamo, svašta bih joj ispričao: zašto se Jekovac zove Jekovac; odakle toliki nišani u podnožju; kako sam čekao u redu za iftarske somune pred pekarom na Kovačima, koji su iz peći izlazili u trenutku zvaničnog zalaska sunca; kakva je to tvrđava iznad Žute tabije; šta znači Das ist Walter; kako su se Nijemci ukopavali oko Sarajeva da ga brane od partizana i kako je jedini primjerak plana odbrane ukraden iz sefa u njemačkoj komandi na Bistriku pa su se Nijemci morali povući; kako se za ramazan sa Žute tabije može vidjeti kad se svjetla na svim gradskim džamijama istovremeno upale čim sunce zađe i iftar započne.

Jedno od najvećih zadovoljstava u životu mi je da pokažem i ispripovijedam Sarajevo nekome dragom, ili barem radoznalom. To je, naravno, oblik dobrodošlice, ali je isto tako i način da svoj grad ponovo doživim. Istinska ljubav se ne može potrošiti.

THE GOAT'S BRIDGE
KOZIJA ĆUPRIJA

Imagine a place where imperial viziers from Istanbul were once ceremonially welcomed, and where pilgrims were emotionally bid farewell as they embarked on distant journeys to Mecca or Jerusalem.

Tucked away in the dramatic, rocky canyon where the Miljacka River is at its narrowest, the Goat's Bridge stands proudly as the only fully preserved Ottoman-era bridge spanning the river. Built during the golden 16th century period along the legendary Imperial Road (Carska džada), this stone beauty embodies supreme architectural elegance. Carved mostly from white marble (hreša), it captivates onlookers with its slender arch and two distinctive circular openings that give it an illusion of weightlessness.

Even today, a veil of mystery surrounds its name; while some search for legends, others trace its origins to the nearby settlement of Jarčedoli, traditionally known for breeding goats. The oldest written testament to its splendor comes from the chronicler Mula Mustafa Bašeskija, who noted the construction of a stone wall extending from this very bridge all the way to Alifakovac in 1771. Today, the bridge offers a perfect, quiet escape from the city bustle—a place where history literally breathes beneath your feet.

PRO TIP:
To experience the bridge at its finest, set off on foot or by bicycle along the shaded Dariva promenade (Ambassadors' Alley). Just a few kilometers from the bustling Baščaršija, a perfect blend of untouched nature, the soothing sound of rushing water, and pure history awaits you.

Zamislite mjesto gdje su se nekada svečano dočekivali carski veziri iz Istanbula i s mnogo emocija ispraćale hadžije na daleka hodočašća u Meku ili Jerusalem.

Sakrivena u dramatičnom, stjenovitom kanjonu gdje je Miljacka najuža, Kozija ćuprija ponosno stoji kao jedini u cijelosti sačuvani most iz osmanskog perioda na rijeci. Sagrađena u zlatnom 16. vijeku na legendarnoj Carskoj džadi, ova kamena ljepotica predstavlja vrhunsku arhitektonsku eleganciju. Isklesana većim dijelom od bijelog hrešanskog kamena, plijeni poglede svojim vitkim lukom i dva prepoznatljiva kružna otvora koji joj daju prividnu lakoću.

Njeno ime i danas krije veo tajni; dok jedni tragaju za legendama, drugi porijeklo naziva vežu za obližnje naselje Jarčedoli, poznato po uzgoju koza i jarčeva. Najstariji pisani svjedok njenog sjaja je ljetopisac Mula Mustafa Bašeskija, koji 1771. godine bilježi gradnju kamenog zida od ove ćuprije pa sve do Alifakovca. Danas je ovaj most savršen, tihi bijeg od gradske vreve i mjesto na kojem historija doslovno diše pod vašim nogama.

PRO TIP:
Doživite most na najljepši način – krenite pješice ili biciklom kroz sjenovitu šetnicu Dariva (Aleja ambasadora). Samo par kilometara od užurbane Baščaršije čeka vas savršen spoj netaknute prirode, huka vode i čiste historije.

MARSHAL TITO
MARŠALA TITA

Did you know that Tito Street, the main artery of Sarajevo, was once a swamp full of frogs? If you walk from Marijin Dvor to Baščaršije, you will be walking along a street that has changed its appearance and name over the centuries, but never its soul.

During the Ottoman era, this route was divided into mahale (neighborhoods) and roads. The beginning of the street was called Podmagribija, after the mosque in today's Marijin Dvor, while the central part was known as the Gaziler Road—named after the heroes Ajni-dedo and Šemsi-dedo. The areas around the Great Park and the Eternal Flame bore the picturesque names of Žabljak (Frogville) and Bare (The Marshes). The reason? Buka stream used to flow down today's Dalmatinska Street, leaving the entire area waterlogged and swampy.

With the arrival of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, the street became Ćemaluša, and following the Sarajevo Assassination in 1914, it was renamed after Franz Ferdinand. After World War I and the creation of the Kingdom of SHS, it turned into Alexander I Karađorđević Street. During World War II, it bore the name of Ante Pavelić, until finally, on April 6, 1946—the city's Liberation Day—it received its current name: Marshal Tito Street.

In the wartime year of 1993, the street was split into two sections. From Marijin Dvor to Eternal Flame, we still walk along Tito Street today, while its former extension, leading straight into the heart of Baščaršija, is named after the famous chronicler Mula Mustafa Bašeskija. So, the next time you pass by Eternal Flame, remember that this is a place where frogs once sang, and where the heart of the city beats today.

Znaš li da je žila kucavica Sarajeva, Titova ulica, nekada bila močvara puna žaba? Ukoliko prošetaš od Marijin Dvora do Baščaršije, šetaćeš ulicom koja je kroz vijekove mijenjala izgled i ime, ali nikada dušu.

U osmansko doba, ova trasa bila je podijeljena na mahale i puteve. Početak ulice zvao se Podmagribija, po džamiji na današnjem Marijin Dvoru, dok se središnji dio zvao Gazilerski put — po herojima Ajni-dedi i Šemsi-dedi. Dijelovi oko Velikog parka i Vječne vatre nosili su slikovita imena Žabljak i Bare. Razlog? Niz današnju Dalmatinsku ulicu tekao je potok Buka, pa je čitav taj kraj bio pod vodom i močvaran.

Dolaskom Austrougarske, ulica postaje Ćemaluša, a nakon Sarajevskog atentata 1914. godine dobija ime po Franzu Ferdinandu. Nakon Prvog svjetskog rata i stvaranja Kraljevine SHS, pretvara se u Ulicu Aleksandra I Karađorđevića. Tokom Drugog svjetskog rata nosi ime Ante Pavelića, da bi konačno 6. aprila 1946. godine, na Dan oslobođenja grada, dobila naziv - Ulica Maršala Tita.

Ratne 1993. godine, ulica je podijeljena na dva dijela. Od Marijin Dvora do Vječne vatre i danas šetamo Titovom, dok se nekadašnji nastavak, koji vodi pravo u srce Baščaršije, zove po čuvenom ljetopiscu — Mula Mustafi Bašeskiji. Stoga, sljedeći put kad prođeš pored Vječne vatre, sjeti se da je to mjesto gdje su nekada pjevale žabe, a danas tu kuca srce grada.

WORLD-CLASS MUSICIANS ARRIVE IN SARAJEVO

VRHUNSKI MUZIČARI STIŽU U SARAJEVO

Sarajevo is once again becoming a vibrant crossroads of art and youthful energy. Starting July 20, the Talis Festival & Academy brings a chamber music festival that connects promising young musicians with established international artists. The Sarajevo Music Academy Concert Hall will transform into a premier venue for world premieres and outstanding performances.

This year's special guest is Lisa Stoll, a Swiss alphorn virtuoso who infuses this traditional Alpine instrument with a contemporary expression. Her performance is scheduled for July 24.

"This year's edition is particularly exciting because we are bringing a program to Sarajevo that unites young talents, international artists, and works that the audience will hear for the very first time," said Maria Wildhaber, Artistic Director of the Festival.

Academy Fellows are selected young musicians who undergo intensive training to meet high performance standards with minimal rehearsal time. This approach simulates real-world professional conditions and prepares the artists for their future careers, supported by scholarships that cover both tuition and housing. Meanwhile, the Composer Academy brings together creators whose new pieces are presented to the public, ensuring that every single concert features a world premiere.

All concerts will be held at the Sarajevo Music Academy Concert Hall, starting at 8:00 PM. The Festival program and audience information can be found at: www.talisfestival.com.

Sarajevo ponovo postaje sjecište umjetnosti i mladalačke energije. Od 20. jula, Talis Festival & Academy donosi festival kamerne muzike koji povezuje mlade muzičare sa afirmisanim međunarodnim umjetnicima. Koncertna sala Muzičke akademije postat će prostor za svjetske premijere i vrhunske izvedbe.

Specijalna gošća ovogodišnjeg izdanja je Lisa Stoll, švicarska virtuozinja na alpskom rogu, koja tom tradicionalnom alpskom instrumentu daje savremeni izraz. Njen nastup zakazan je za 24. juli.

Polaznici Akademije (Academy Fellows) su odabrani mladi muzičari, koji prolaze kroz intenzivnu obuku kako bi dostigli visoke izvođačke standarde, uz minimalno vrijeme za probe. Tako se simuliraju profesionalni uslovi i umjetnici se pripremaju za karijeru, uz stipendije koje pokrivaju troškove školarine i smještaja. Kompozitorska akademija okuplja autore čija se nova djela predstavljaju publici, pa tako svaki koncert donosi po jednu svjetsku premijeru.

Koncerti će biti održani u Koncertnoj sali Muzičke akademije u Sarajevu sa početkom u 20 sati. Program Festivala i informacije za publiku pronađite na: www.talisfestival.com.

The neighborhoods on the slopes of Trebević are in the shade most of the day, and it's for this reason that Sarajevans call this "the mildewy side of town." You can reach the slopes and peak of Trebević on foot, by car or by cable car. The southern side of this mountain "hugs" the city center, and there are tons of spots on Trebević that offer enchanting views: Vidikovac, the Observatory (Bistrik Tower), Brus, Sunnyland, Sofa Peakas well as the large terrace of the Roof Gardens complex.

"MEMLI STRANA" I TREBEVIĆ

Naselja na obroncima Trebevića su veći dio dana u hladu pa ih Sarajlije zbog toga zovu "memli stranom grada". Do obronaka i vrhova Trebevića može se stići pješice, automobilom ili Žičarom. Na toj planini, koja uže gradsko jezgro „grli" sa južne strane, postoji mnoštvo lokacija sa očaravajućim pogledom na Sarajevo, poput Vidikovca, Opservatorija (Bističke kule), Brusa, Sunnylanda, vrha Sofe te prostrane terase kompleksa Roof Gardens

2 ŽUTA TABIJA, BIJELA TABIJA & ZMAJEVAC

Žuta Tabija and Bijela Tabija were fortifications for the old town of Vratnik and offer fascinating views of Sarajevo. Žuta Tabija (Yellow Fortress) is just a ten-minute walk from Baščaršija, and Bijela Tabija (White Fortress) and the nearby restaurant of the same name offer lovely views of the Sarajevo Valley. You can walk through the mahalas until you come to Zmajevac, and then enjoy a relaxing view over lunch, drinks or narghila at the cafe-restaurant Vidikovac-Zmajevac.

ŽUTA TABIJA, BIJELA TABIJA I ZMAJEVAC

Fascinantan pogled na Sarajevo nude bivše utvrde starog grada Vratnika – Žuta i Bijela tabija. Žuta tabija udaljena je svega desetak minuta šetnje od Baščaršije, a Bijela tabija i istoimeni restoran pokraj nje nude prelijep pogled na sarajevsku kotlinu. Kroz sarajevske mahale može se prošetati do Zmajevca i u opuštajućem pogledu na grad uživati uz ručak, piće ili nargilu u cafe restoranu Vidikovac – Zmajevac.

3 SONE SKY LOUNGE & CITY VIEW DELUXE

SOne Sky Lounge is located on the rooftop terrace of Courtyard by Marriott Hotel, and the bar, which offers a view of Skenderija and the center of Sarajevo, can be reached via the exterior panoramic elevator. In the city center, on the main pedestrian street Ferhadija, within the Hecco Deluxe hotel (the former JAT skyscraper), you'll find café City View Deluxe, where you can enjoy a stunning panoramic view in all four directions.

SONE SKY LOUNGE I CITY VIEW DELUXE

SOne Sky Lounge nalazi se na krovnoj terasi hotela Courtyard by Marriott, a do bara, iz kojeg se pruža pogled na Skenderiju i uži centar Sarajeva, dolazi se vanjskim panoramskim liftom. U centru, na glavnoj gradskoj šetnici Ferhadiji, u sklopu Hecco Deluxe hotela (bivši JAT-ov neboder) smješten je café City View Deluxe iz kojeg ćete uživati u prelijepom panoramskom pogledu na sve četiri strane.

4 AVAZ TWIST TOWER & CAFFE 35

Avaz Twist Tower is next to the Sarajevo railway station, and this skyscraper is home to Caffe 35 (on the 35th floor), which has a spectacular view of town. The platform at the top has tower viewers that will help you peer into hidden corners, and you can reach this vantage point via the panoramic elevator – perfect for taking in the surroundings.

AVAZ TWIST TOWER I CAFFE 35

Pored sarajevske Željezničke stanice smješten je Avaz Twist Tower, neboder na čijem se 35. spratu nalazi Caffe 35, koji nudi spektakularan pogled na Sarajevo. Na vrhu zgrade nalazi se i platforma sa durbinima pomoću kojih možete zaviriti u skrivene kutke grada, a do ovog vidikovca možete doći panoramskim liftom, idealnim za razgledanje okruženja.

GIRO DI ĆIRO: SARAJEVO - PALE

Where the legendary narrow-gauge steam train Ćiro once rumbled, leaving behind the scent of smoke and the echo of history, a new, green adventure is being written today. The old railway line has been transformed into the spectacular 13-kilometer Giro di Ćiro Sarajevo - Pale cycling trail. Thanks to an European Union investment, this historic route has been revived as a modern outdoor attraction, connecting people, communities, and the untouched nature of the Miljacka Canyon.

The adventure begins in front of the iconic Vijećnica (City Hall), guides you through the beloved Dariva pedestrian zone, and officially hits the historic tracks at the Vrelo života (Spring of Life) site, ending near the old railway station in Pale. Riding through nine restored stone tunnels and across two bridges feels like a movie scene, offering the perfect escape from summer heat into deep shade. With its gentle railway incline, the trail is ideal for recreational cyclists and families.

PRO TIP:
Don't have a bike? You can easily rent e-bikes in the city to breeze through the climbs. For those seeking a bigger challenge with an even bigger reward, we recommend continuing to Ravna Planina. Take the gondola to the top, and on your way back, take the forest trail toward the Source of the Miljacka. There, you can rest by the icy-cold waters of the very river that symbolizes Sarajevo.

Tamo gdje je uskotračnom prugom nekada tutnjao legendarni parni voz Ćiro, ostavljajući iza sebe miris dima i odjek historije, danas se piše nova, zelena avantura. Stara uskotračna pruga transformisana je u spektakularnu biciklističku stazu Giro di Ćiro Sarajevo - Pale dužine 13 kilometara. Zahvaljujući investiciji Evropske unije, ova istorijska ruta oživjela je kao moderna outdoor atrakcija koja povezuje ljude, zajednice i netaknutu prirodu kanjona Miljacke.

Avantura počinje ispred kultne Vijećnice, vodi vas kroz omiljenu pješačku zonu Dariva, a kod lokaliteta Vrelo života zvanično stupate na historijsku trasu koja završava blizu stare Željezničke stanice na Palama. Vožnja kroz 9 obnovljenih kamenih tunela i preko dva mosta pruža filmski osjećaj i savršen bijeg od ljetnih vrućina u duboku hladovinu. Staza je idealna za rekreativce i porodice jer ima blag, željeznički nagib.

PRO TIP:

There are artists who sing about their city, and then there is Dino Merlin, whose songs form the ultimate soundtrack to Sarajevo. His career, spanning more than four decades, is not just a collection of awards, sold-out arenas, and stadiums. It is the chronicle of an indestructible energy, of poetic defiance, but above all—a deeply human story about what it means to dream in the city at the foot of Mount Trebević.

"Happiness is not a sack full of money. Those who have it know that..."—this is the quiet motto of a man who has survived both the heights of success and profound creative and personal lows, always returning stronger. His songs are not merely hits; they are the emotional codes of entire generations. To them, we fell in love, we cried, we left this city, and we returned to it again with tears in our eyes. His concerts ceased to be mere musical events long ago. They are rituals of collective catharsis, production spectacles that push boundaries, seamlessly blending state-of-the-art technology with raw, pure emotion.

This year, Sarajevo and Merlin are writing a story that will be told for generations. As the absolute crowning achievement of his impressive career, Dino Merlin is bringing an unprecedented triple magic to the largest stadium in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

For three consecutive nights—on July 31st, and August 1st and 2nd—Koševo Stadium will become the epicenter of emotion. It will be a place where tens of thousands of voices from all over the world—from the local raja to tourists and the diaspora flooding into Sarajevo—will breathe and sing as one.

Postoje umjetnici koji pjevaju o svom gradu, i postoji Dino Merlin, čije su pjesme zvučna kulisa Sarajeva. Njegova karijera, duga više od četiri decenije, nije samo niz nagrada, rasprodatih arena i stadiona. To je hronika jedne neuništive energije, poetskog prkosa, ali prije svega – duboko ljudska priča o tome kako se sanja u gradu podno Trebevića.

"Nije sreća para puna vreća. To znaju oni što je imaju..." – tihi je moto čovjeka koji je preživio i uspone i duboke stvaralačke i životne padove, uvijek se vraćajući jači. Njegove pjesme nisu samo hitovi; to su emotivni kodovi generacija. Uz njih smo se zaljubljivali, plakali, odlazili iz ovog grada i ponovo mu se, sa suzama u očima, vraćali. Njegovi koncerti odavno su prestali biti samo muzički događaji. To su rituali kolektivne katarze, produkcijski spektakli koji pomjeraju granice, spajajući najsavremeniju tehnologiju sa sirovom, čistom emocijom.

Ove godine, Sarajevo i Merlin pišu priču koja će se dugo prepričavati. Kao apsolutna kruna njegove impresivne karijere, Dino Merlin donosi nezapamćenu trostruku čaroliju na najveći bh. stadion.

Tri noći zaredom – 31. jula, te 1. i 2. avgusta stadion Koševo postat će epicentar emocija. To će biti mjesto gdje će desetine hiljada glasova iz cijelog svijeta, od domaće raje do turista i dijaspore koja se slila u Sarajevo, disati i pjevati kao jedno.

SEVDAH BY DAMIR IMAMOVIĆ AT SVRZO'S HOUSE

SEVDAH DAMIRA IMAMOVIĆA U SVRZINOJ KUĆI

This year again, every Wednesday throughout July and August, a series of exclusive concerts titled Damir Imamović's Sevdah at Svrzo's House will take place, bridging two significant cornerstones of Bosnian identity—the traditional sevdalinka love song and Svrzo's House.

As a masterpiece of intangible cultural heritage, the sevdalinka was inscribed onto the UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage List in late 2024, cementing its global significance. Svrzo's House, on the other hand, stands as a prime example of Ottoman residential architecture and is designated as a National Monument of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The year 2026 marks both the 300th anniversary of Svrzo's House and its 75th year under the care of the Museum of Sarajevo. It was precisely within the haremluks (the private, women's courtyards) of residences like this that the sevdalinka was born. By bringing the music back to its original setting, Damir Imamović's Sevdah at Svrzo's House offers an exclusive, immersive audio-visual experience.

Damir Imamović is the leading figure among contemporary sevdah performers and was named the Best European World Music Artist in 2021. For most of these intimate performances, Imamović will be joined by special guests, featuring renowned local and international musicians.

Tickets are priced at 40 KM and can be purchased online via www.karter.ba. A limited batch of tickets, reserved exclusively for tourists, will also be available at the Svrzo's House box office two hours before showtime. All Mastercard cardholders are eligible for a 25% discount.

Ove godine se svake srijede u julu i avgustu održava ekskluzivna serija koncerata Sevdah Damira Imamovića u Svrzinoj kući, koja je spoj dva značajna stuba bh. identiteta - tradicionalne ljubavne pjesme sevdalinke i Svrzine kuće.

Sevdalinka je kao nematerijalna baština, krajem 2024. godine uvrštena na UNESCO listu nematerijalnog naslijeđa, čime je dobila univerzalni značaj. S druge strane, Svrzina kuća je vrhunski primjer osmanske stambene arhitekture i nacionalni je spomenik BiH. U 2026. obilježava se 300 godina postojanja Svrzine kuće i 75 godina otkako je u posjedu Muzeja Sarajeva. Upravo u haremlucima (ženskim dvorištima) ovakvih kuća sevdalinka je i nastala. Stoga, Sevdah Damira Imamovića u Svrzinoj kući vraća sevdalinku u njezin izvorni ambijent, što ove koncerte čini ekskluzivnim audio-vizuelnim iskustvom.

Damir Imamović najpoznatiji je predstavnik modernih interpretatora sevdaha, a 2021. proglašen je Najboljim evropskim umjetnikom u domenu world music-a. Na većini koncerata u Svrzinoj kući nastupit će i Damirovi gosti, renomirani domaći i međunarodni muzičari.

Ulaznice po cijeni od 40 KM mogu se kupiti online putem www.karter.ba. Dio ulaznica, namijenjen isključivo turistima, moći će se kupiti i dva sata prije koncerata na biletarnici Svrzine kuće. Korisnici svih Mastercard kartica ostvaruju popust od 25% na cijenu ulaznice.

ORIGINAL SARAJEVO QUALITY

The "Original Sarajevo Quality" trademark was established to draw a clear distinction between authentic Sarajevo products—which have undergone a rigorous certification process to obtain a geographical indication from the Institute for Intellectual Property of Bosnia and Herzegovina—and those that have not.

The project is managed by the Baščaršija Business Improvement District (ZUP). As part of this initiative, the "Original Sarajevo Quality" seal was created to guarantee the authenticity and high standard of the goods purchased by consumers. Currently, 15 artisans in Sarajevo hold this certificate of authenticity.

Oznaka Original Sarajevo Quality nastala je s ciljem da se načini jasna razlika između autentičnih sarajevskih proizvoda, koji su prošli kroz strogi proces dobivanja geografske oznake kod Instituta za intelektualno vlasništvo BiH i onih koji to nisu.

Projektom rukovodi Zona unaprijeđenog poslovanja – ZUP Baščaršija. U toku procesa kreiran je i žig Original Sarajevo Quality, kako bi se kupcima pružila garancija za kvalitet proizvoda koje kupuju. Trenutno u Sarajevu certifikat o autentičnosti proizvoda posjeduje 15 zanatlija.

For budget-friendly fashion and items, explore Sirano, Ciglane, and Otoka markets.

PRO TIP:

U samom centru, na Trgu djece Sarajeva, posjetite popularni ARIA Mall. Ako istražujete Novi Grad, čeka vas prostrani Bingo City Center (BCC) sa modernim CineStar kinom, dok je na južnom ulazu West Gate Retail Park. CULTURE TO THE STREETS!

KULTURA NA ULICE!

Imagine a city where cobblestones become a stage, and ancient fortress walls serve as backdrops for operatic arias. Sponsored by the Government of Sarajevo Canton, the National Theatre Sarajevo's special program Culture to the Streets 2026! will transform iconic urban locations into a living, breathing stage from August 28 to September 12. Renowned local and international artists are bringing high culture directly to the people, seamlessly blending the classical with the contemporary.

From Susan Sontag Theatre Square and the magical Yellow Fortress (Žuta tabija), to mystical Bentbaša and the green oasis of Safet Zajko Park, Sarajevo is turning into an open, barrier-free theatre.

The repertoire is spellbinding: featuring the Sarajevo Philharmonic's grand spectacle "Spektaklook," the evocative "With Love from Bosnia," and the timeless rhythms of "Bolero." The "World Music Duo" awaits those seeking intimate melodies, while children's plays will delight the youngest audiences. Find the full schedule at www.sarajevonavigator.ba.

PRO TIP:
Arrive early at Susan Sontag Square and grab a seat at Opera or Barometar café. Sip your drink, soak in the city's rhythm, and watch dusk give way to the magic of the performing arts. Admission is free!

Zamislite grad u kojem pozorišne daske postaju pločnici, a zidine starih tvrđava kulise za operske arije. Specijalni program Narodnog pozorišta Sarajevo Kultura na ulice 2026!, pod pokroviteljstvom Vlade Kantona Sarajevo, od 28. augusta do 12. septembra pretvara kultne sarajevske lokacije u živu, pulsirajuću scenu. Renomirani domaći i gostujući umjetnici donose visoku kulturu direktno među građane i posjetioce Sarajeva, spajajući tako klasiku sa modernim.

Od Pozorišnog trga Susan Sontag, preko magičnog bastiona Žuta tabija, pa do mistične Bentbaše i sarajevske zelene oaze - parka Safet Zajko, Sarajevo zapravo postaje teatar bez zidova i barijera, otvoren za sve.

Repertoar je očaravajući: od spektakla Sarajevske filharmonije „Spektaklook", preko performansa „With Love from Bosnia", do vanvremenskog „Bolera". Za ljubitelje intimnijih nota tu je „World Music Duo", dok najmlađi uživaju u dječijim predstavama. Kompletan program i satnice pronađite na našem web portalu www.sarajevonavigator.ba.

PRO TIP:
Dođite ranije na Pozorišni trg Susan Sontag, zauzmite mjesto u kafićima Opera ili Barometar. Dok lagano ispijate piće i hvatate puls grada, doživite kako suton prepušta scenu umjetnosti. Ulaz na sve programe je slobodan!

A FOOD LOVER'S PARADISE

RAJ ZA GURMANE

Sarajevo is an ideal destination for those who love good food and, whether you prefer Bosnian food or international cuisine, there are many places where you can enjoy culinary specialties.

Bosnian food reflects a mix of Oriental, Mediterranean and Central European culinary traditions and most meals make use of meat and vegetables.

Traditional Bosnian "fast food" restaurants are called aščinica, which are similar to cafeteria-style eateries; buregdžinica, which serve pita (phyllo dough stuffed with various ingredients) and ćevabdžinica, where you can enjoy ćevapčići and other grilled food.

These restaurants are mostly located in Baščaršija and we recommend that you sample some local dishes at Hadžibajrić F. Namika and ASDŽ aščinicas; try some pita at Bosna and Oklagija buregdžinicas and ćevapčići at Petica, Mrkva, Bosna, Hodžić and Zmaj ćevabdžinicas.

Careva ćuprija, Nanina Kuhinja, Avlija, Dveri and Nova Bentbaša restaurants are sure to impress as much with their first-class local specialties as with the lovely, authentic ambiance.

Sarajevo je idealno odredište za ljubitelje dobrog zalogaja, a brojna su mjesta gdje možete uživati u gastronomskim specijalitetima, bilo da preferirate bosansku ili međunarodnu kuhinju.

Bosanska kuhinja mješavina je orijentalne, mediteranske i centralnoevropske kulinarske tradicije, a za pripremu jela uglavnom se koriste meso i povrće.

Tradicionalni bosanski "fast food" restorani su aščinice u stilu kafeterija, buregdžinice, gdje se služe pite (jufke punjene raznim sastojcima) i ćevabdžinice, u kojima možete uživati u ćevapčićima i ostalom mesu prženom na roštilju.

Ovi restorani mahom se nalaze na Baščaršiji, a mi vam preporučujemo da domaća kuhana jela degustirate u aščinicama Hadžibajrić F. Namika i ASDŽ, pite u buregdžinicama Bosna i Oklagija, a ćevapčiće u ćevabdžinicama Petica, Mrkva, Bosna, Hodžić i Zmaj.

Restorani Careva ćuprija, Nanina kuhinja, Avlija, Dveri i Nova Bentbaša će vas oduševiti kako prvoklasnim domaćim specijalitetima, tako i prijatnim, autentičnim ambijentom.

Sarajevo has some excellent international restaurants where you can enjoy delicious meals and fine wines. For quick and delicious Italian food, choose Spazio Gourmet, Buon Boccone, Nostra Cucina, BarSa, Tavola, Piccolo Mondo, Spazio Gourmet Belvedere or Tomasi; drop by the Smashburger, Blind Tiger or BASH for some delicious burgers, whereas Arigato and Sushi San are the best places in Sarajevo to try some great sushi.

Those who love fresh fish and seafood are in for a treat at the Luka Sarajevo, Libertas and Tišina restaurants and taverns, and the lovely atmosphere and fresh trout caught straight from the on-site fish farm are definitely reason enough to visit the Toplik fish restaurant in East Sarajevo.

Other excellent restaurants include: 4 sobe gospođe Safije, Kibe Mahala, Barhana, Klopa, Amerikanac, Brix, Pivnica Sarajevo, Park Prinčeva, Začin, Preporod, Soho, Al Parco, and many others.

Healthy, non-gluten and vegetarian meals can be found in Bistro Zdravo and Fit Bar, while delicious baked goods are to be enjoyed at Maison Coco, Fine Food and Mlinar bakery chains. Recommended also is a traditional bakery Poričanin on Baščaršija.

RESTAURANTS WITH A HISTORY

The story behind the restaurant called Inat Kuća (Spite House), which is now a historical monument, is an interesting one: Austro-Hungarian authorities wanted to knock down a few houses in order to build the City Hall, but there was one old and defiant Sarajevan called Benderija who stood up against them and wouldn't let them tear down his home. After long negotiations, his house was relocated, stone by stone, to the other side of the Miljacka River. This object is now a restaurant that offers fine Bosnian specialties. Pivnica HS is a restaurant that is part of Sarajevska Pivara, a brewery that has been in continuous use for the past 150 years and was one of the first to be built in the Ottoman Empire. Don't miss a chance to try their beer and to visit the Sarajevo Brewery Museum.

For ordering restaurant food, groceries, and other products, we recommend the Korpa platform.

GOOD TO KNOW

Alcohol is not served at most aščinicas, buregdžinicas and ćevabdžinicas, and many restaurants in Sarajevo have halal certification. There aren't many vegetarian restaurants in Sarajevo; however, most menus feature a variety of meatless options

Sarajevo ima i odlične međunarodne restorane, gdje možete uživati u ukusnim jelima, ali i izboru veoma kvalitetnih vina. Za brzu i ukusnu italijansku kuhinju odaberite restorane Spazio Gourmet, Buon Boccone, Nostra Cucina, BarSa, Tavola, Piccolo Mondo, Spazio Gourmet Belvedere ili Tomasi. Na ukusne burgere svratite u Smashburger, Blind Tiger ili BASH, dok su Arigato i Sushi San vjerovatno najbolja mjesta za pojesti sushi.

Ljubitelji svježe ribe i morskih plodova uživat će u restoranima i konobama Luka Sarajevo, Libertas i Tišina, a prelijep ambijent i pastrmka iz vlastitog ribnjaka razlog su za posjetu restoranu Ribnjak Toplik u Istočnom Sarajevu.

Odlični restorani su i 4 sobe gospođe Safije, Kibe Mahala, Barhana, Klopa, Amerikanac, Brix, Pivnica Sarajevo, Park Prinčeva, Začin, Preporod, Soho, Al Parco...

Zdrave, bezglutenske i vegetarijanske obroke nude Bistro Zdravo i Fit Bar. U slasnim pekarskim proizvodima uživajte u lancima pekara Maison Coco, Fine Food i Mlinar, a preporučujemo i pekaru Poričanin na Baščaršiji.

RESTORANI SA HISTORIJOM

Priča o restoranu Inat kuća, koji je danas historijski spomenik, veoma je zanimljiva. Austro-Ugarske vlasti željele su srušiti nekoliko kuća kako bi izgradile Vijećnicu, ali im se suprotstavio stari i prkosni Sarajlija Benderija, koji nije dopuštao da se njegov dom sruši. Nakon dugih pregovora, njegova kuća premještena je, kamen po kamen, na drugu stranu Miljacke, a danas je u njoj smješten restoran koji nudi ukusne domaće specijalitete. Restoran Pivnica HS nalazi se u sklopu Sarajevske pivare, koja u kontinuitetu djeluje već 150 godina i bila je prva pivara izgrađena u Osmanskom carstvu. Ne propustite uz obrok probati njihovo pivo te posjetiti Muzej Sarajevske pivare.

Za narudžbu restoranske hrane, namirnica i drugih proizvoda preporučujemo platformu Korpa.

DOBRO JE ZNATI

Alkohol se ne služi u većini aščinica, buregdžinica i ćevabdžinica, a brojni sarajevski restorani posjeduju i halal certifikate. Nema mnogo restorana u kojima se služi isključivo vegetarijanska hrana, ali na jelovniku većine nalaze se i jela bez mesa.

REHABILITATION AND RELAXATION

REHABILITACIJA I OPUŠTANJE

Sarajevo once had many hamams (public baths) during Ottoman rule; today only the oldest, Isa-beg Hamam, remains open.

Ilidža, named after its healing sulfur springs, has been a popular spa and rest destination since Austro-Hungarian times. Terme Ilidža is still a renowned rehab and relaxation center, while the nearby Thermal Riviera offers a popular swimming spot. Two well-known wellness centers operate at Hills and Malak hotels.

Sarajevo is surrounded by mountains with fresh, clean air, offering the perfect setting for long, therapeutic walks in nature. Many spas and beauty salons provide top cosmetic treatments; we recommend Amman Spa, Sultan Spa, Point and Herbal Spa.

For hair services, we recommend the Ogledalce "Beautiful Hair Salon" in Baščaršija, and for aesthetic face and body treatments, including hair removal, visit Foto Depil & Estetic Studio.

Additionally, several wellness centers provide hijama, a traditional wet cupping therapy that has recently seen a major resurgence in popularity.

Sarajevo je još za osmanske vladavine imalo mnoštvo hamama (javnih kupatila). Danas je otvoren samo onaj najstariji - Isa-begov hamam.

Naselje Ilidža (tur. iladža – lječilište) nazvano je po ljekovitim sumpornim izvorima, a još u austrougarsko doba bilo je popularno odmaralište i lječilište. I danas Terme Ilidža uživaju ugled renomiranog centra za rehabilitaciju i relaksaciju, a obližnji kompleks Termalna rivijera atraktivno je kupalište. Na Ilidži danas djeluju i dva renomirana wellness centra, pri hotelima Hills i Malak.

Sarajevo je okruženo planinama sa kvalitetnim zrakom, gdje se može uživati u dugim, terapeutskim šetnjama kroz prirodu. Brojni su spa centri i saloni ljepote sa vrhunskim kozmetičkim tretmanima. Mi vam preporučujemo: Amman Spa, Sultan Spa, Point i Herbal Spa.

Za frizerske usluge preporučujemo salon ljepih frizura Ogledalce na Baščaršiji, a za estetske tretmane lica, tijela i epilaciju posjetite Foto Depil & Estetic studio.

Pronađite savršen mir i opuštanje uz bogatu ponudu masaža u Sarajevu. Od klasičnih i terapeutskih do egzotičnih tretmana, prepustite se stručnim rukama za potpunu regeneraciju tijela i uma. Onima koji žele ostati u formi na raspolaganju su brojni moderno opremljeni fitness centri. Jedan od njih je BTC Fitness nudi grupne programe vježbanja, ali i mogućnost individualnih treninga. Nekoliko salona vrše usluge hidžame, tradicionalne metode liječenja puštanjem krvi, koja u posljednje vrijeme sve popularnija.

MY ENVIRONMENT, MY SARAJEVO

MOJ OKOLIŠ, MOJE SARAJEVO

Sarajevo's soul is felt in each cup (fildzan) of traditional coffee, in every view of mount Trebevic, and each cobblestone beneath the feet. To keep that soul vibrant, we must protect Sarajevo for generations to come. That is why Linden (Sarajevo Navigator) - with the FBiH Environmental Protection Fund and key tourism stakeholders—is launching a brand-new initiative: the My Environment, My Sarajevo project.

The goal is clear: using Sarajevo Navigator's print and digital channels, we aim to transform how we experience and develop tourism between now and spring 2027. Sarajevo attracts hundreds of thousands of visitors; our mission is to ensure this growth happens in harmony with nature. Green walkways, clean streets, and eco-consciousness are more than responsibilities—they are key assets positioning Sarajevo as a modern, eco-friendly destination.

Through inspiring stories, eco-tips, and responsible travel advice, we will connect tourists, the diaspora, and the local community with our stunning natural heritage. Together with hotels, restaurants, and local artisans, we are building an ecosystem where tourism leaves a positive footprint.

Sustainable tourism isn't just a trend—it is how we truly respect what we love. Follow our campaign online, on social media, and in our printed guide. Reduce waste, choose green routes, and proudly say: My Environment, My Sarajevo!

Sarajevo ima dušu koju osjetite u svakom fildžanu kafe, pogledu sa Trebevića i komadiću kaldrme. Ali, da bi ta duša ostala atraktivnom, Sarajevo moramo čuvati za generacije koje dolaze! Upravo zato, Linden (Sarajevo Navigator) u saradnji sa Fondom za zaštitu okoliša FBiH i ključnim akterima turizma pokreće novu, posebnu priču – projekat Moj okoliš, moje Sarajevo.

Cilj je jasan: kroz printane i digitalne komunikacijske kanale Sarajevo Navigatora i partnera, sve do proljeća 2027. godine, transformisati način na koji doživljavamo i razvijamo turizam. Sarajevo privlači stotine hiljada posjetilaca, a naša misija je osigurati da turizam raste u harmoniji s prirodom. Zelene šetnice, čiste ulice i ekološka svijest nisu samo obaveza prema gradu, već i ključni adut koji Sarajevo pozicionira kao modernu i ekološki svjesnu destinaciju.

Kroz inspirativne priče, eko-savjete i preporuke za odgovorno putovanje, Sarajevo Navigator će povezati turiste, dijasporu i lokalnu zajednicu sa našim prelijepim prirodnim bogatstvima. Zajedno sa hotelima, restoranima i zanatlijama gradimo ekosistem u kojem posjete turista ostavljaju pozitivan trag na našu okolinu.

Jer održivi turizam nije samo trend – to je način na koji istinski poštujemo ono što volimo! Pratite našu kampanju na webu, mrežama i u štampanom vodiču. Budite dio pozitivne promjene, smanjite otpad, birajte zelene rute i ponosno recite: Moj okoliš, moje Sarajevo!
